Don,

With all the rain we've had in Atlanta over the past week I must let you know how confident I feel knowing that Georgia Roofing has always been "on top of things" for me and my investment properties.

For more than 25 years you, and before you your father, have been one of the most reliable and honest vendors I have ever used. I take comfort in knowing that my tenants are protected, my properties are well maintained and when a situation needs attention, it will be taken care of promptly and professionally.

As a prudent businessman I have gotten competitive quotes from time to time and never once has any other roofing company ever underbid your quoted price and, on one occasion, I was even told that an entire roof need be replaced when I was less than 10 year old and your company made the needed repair for a few hundred dollars.

I have passed your name along to others whom I know invest in real estate and of course had your company replace the roof on my daughter's home.

In these challenging times I know others reevaluate the quality, price and service they are getting from their vendors and if it were of advantage to your company, please feel free to use this letter,

Most sincerely,

 3/28/11
